

Rubric: The Hero's Experience Timeline
Category	Criteria				Points
	1	2	3	4
Documentation of events: understanding the "big picture"	Less than three significant events, including dates and descriptions, are present.	At least three significant events, including dates and descriptions, are present.	At least five significant events, including dates and descriptions, are present.	At least six significant events, including dates and descriptions, are present.
Putting the interviewee's experiences in context	Less than three significant events, including dates and descriptions, of the interviewee's experiences are present.	At least three significant events, including dates and descriptions, of the interviewee's experiences are present.	At least five significant events, including dates and descriptions, of the interviewee's experiences are present.	At least six significant events, including dates and descriptions, of the interviewee's experiences are present.
Accuracy	There are many mistakes in factual information and in the sequencing of events.	There are some errors in factual information and in the sequencing of events.	The factual information is mostly correct and most of the events are sequenced correctly.	All of the factual information is correct and all of the events are sequenced correctly.
Citing sources	No sources are cited.	Some effort is made to cite sources, but the list is incomplete and formatting is not correct.	Sources are cited but there are some mistakes in formatting.	Sources are cited using the proper format.
Neatness and creativity	Timeline is done sloppily.	Timeline is legible. Graphics, if included, are decorative rather than illustrative.	Timeline is neat and easy to read. At least two graphics are included to illustrate events.	Timeline is done very neatly and is very easy to read. Several graphics are included to illustrate events.
TOTAL
Teacher Comments:					