

Rubric: The Hero's Journey Map
Category	Criteria				Points
	1	2	3	4
Mapping locations	The map highlights a few locations traversed by the interviewee but some labels are missing.	The map highlights some locations traversed by the interviewee and labels are present.	The map highlights many of the locations traversed by the interviewee and labels are present.	The map highlights the major locations traversed by the interviewee and labels are present and easy to read.
Mapping geographic features	Only a few geographic features (mountains, rivers, seas, etc.) appear on the map.	Some geographic features (mountains, rivers, seas, etc.) appear on the map.	Many geographic features (mountains, rivers, seas, etc.) appear on the map.	The major geographic features (mountains, rivers, seas, etc.) appear on the map.
Accuracy	Few of the locations and features are positioned and labeled correctly.	Some of the locations and features are positioned and labeled correctly.	Most of the locations and features are positioned and labeled correctly.	The major locations and features are positioned and labeled correctly.
Map key	No map key present.	Map key present but is incomplete or partially incorrect.	Map key present and mostly complete and correct.	Map key present and complete and correct.
Neatness and creativity	Map is done sloppily; labels are difficult to read.	Map is legible but labels may be missing or not easily referenced.	Map is neat and is easy to read. Most locations and features are easily referenced.	Map is very neat and easy to read. It is easy to read. The major locations and features are easily referenced and color-coded.
TOTAL
Teacher Comments:					