BOOKER T. WASHINGTON, THE APOSTLE OF LEARNING.
"In all thy getting, get wisdom."

Thou too sail on, O Ship of State!
Sail on, O Union strong and great!
Humanity, with all its fears,
With all the hopes of future years
Is hanging breathless on thy fate!
We know what Master laid thy keel,
What Workmen wrought thy ribs of steel,
Who made each mast, and sail, and rope,
What anvils rang, what hammers beat,
In what a forge and what a heat
Were shaped the anchors of thy hope!
Fear not each sudden sound and shock
'Tis but the flapping of the sail,
And not a rent made by the gale,
In spite of rock and tempest's roar,
In spite of false lights on the shore,
Sail on, nor fear to breast the sea!
Our hearts, our hopes are all with thee,
Our hearts, our hopes, our prayers, our fears,
Our faith triumphant o'er our fears,
Are all with thee, are all with thee!
