

Today in History Research Directions

American Memory & Me Birthday Project

DIRECTIONS

1. Go to <https://www.loc.gov/collections/today-in-history/>.
2. Enter your birth month and day (example: October 3) in the search box at the top of the page and click hit return.
3. Scan the information and choose one event / person to investigate more closely (some days only feature a single event).
4. Read the information about the event / person and click on the link for at least one primary source. (Remember to use your web browser's Back button to return to the main Today in History page.)
5. Fill out the Today in History Research note sheets.
